

Luis Saúl Moscoso
Government Affairs Director
All Aboard Washington (AAWA)

Luis is a former 3-term Washington State Representative. After working for 33 years in transit and on Labor Union staff he retired and was elected to the Legislature where he served as Vice Chair of the House Transportation Committee. His background in transportation inspired him to co-found the Legislative Rail Caucus in 2013 to advocate for passenger rail service and increased corridor capacity and safety. He became Government Affairs Director for AAWA in 2018. Luis also works with the Association of Oregon Rail and Transit Advocates (AORTA).
